

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

SPECIAL EDUCATION MEDIATION

Is a voluntary process in which parents of students with disabilities and school district personnel meet with a specially trained, impartial individual (i.e., a mediator) to work out differences in a collaborative way.

SPECIAL EDUCATION MEDIATION (Continued)

Mediation can be requested by the parent or the local educational agency (LEA) and is voluntary for both parties

A parent may elect to engage in mediation while also pursuing an impartial hearing

During the 2019-20 and 2020-21 school years, of those cases that proceeded to mediation in NYS, 83.3% resulted in agreement between parents and school districts
